HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE APARESH KUMAR SINGH

By Court Today no one appears on behalf of the petitioner. On the last occasion also no one had appeared on behalf of the petitioner. However, learned counsel for the Respondent-University, who was present earlier, had submitted that the grievances of the member of the petitioner's association have been redressed.

Learned counsel for the Respondent-University once again submits that the grievances of the petitioner were in relation to the fixation of pay scale under 5th Pay Revision to the non-teaching University's employees which had been redressed. In that view of the matter, he submits that the grievances no longer remain. However, if any individual employee has any grievance relating to pay fixation, he is always at liberty to raise his dispute before the concerned authorities or the appropriate forum.

Having regard to the aforesaid submissions made, the writ petition appears to have been rendered infructuous and is accordingly disposed of along with Cont. Case (Civil) No. 559 of 2005.
